

Engage Bible Study Guide

Session 32 | Titus 3 | May 10, 2021

OPEN

- In what life situations do you least exhibit your faith? In a checkout line? In a fender bender? After a tough conversation? In the midst of a tough conversation? When you're driving? Other: _____?
- When you feel like you're losing your 'centeredness' what do you do to become more centered?

DIG

- As you read Titus 3, why do you suppose Paul again stresses "doing what is good" (verses 1, 8, 14)? What is it about human nature that makes these kinds of reminders so necessary?
- What can you learn about God's character in verses 4-7? What do you learn about God's work in us? What do you learn about God's purpose for us?
- How do these truths promote humility? Gratitude? A life of service? What is the issue with the people mentioned in verses 9-11? How does this relate to Paul's other teachings on this matter (see 2 Timothy 2:25-26; 3:5)?

APPLY

- If you are able to imagine a time in your life prior to awakening to God's amazing grace and awesome love in your life, what was your life like then? What was it like soon after?
- In doing what is good, which are you motivated by: (a) Call of duty? (b) Fear of judgment? (c) Hope of Christ's return? (d) Gratitude for what God has done for you? (e) Desire to make peace in your relationships? (f) Needs of others?
- What "good" are you around your home? Around your church? In your city, state, or nation?
- Over the past year, where do you sense growth leading a "productive life" for God?
