HUMILITY | Putting others first by giving up what you think you deserve

We live in a “me-centered” world, where people act as if the world revolves around them. It can be hard to find role models to show us how to be humble and think of others as we go about our daily routines. Thankfully, we don’t have to figure this out on our own. When Jesus was on earth, He gave us the ultimate example of humility. Through His life and death, Jesus showed us how to serve others and put them first.

MORNING TIME

As often as you can this month, ask your kid before they head out the door for the day: “What is the best thing you saw someone do for someone else yesterday?”

MEAL TIME

At meals this month, discuss the following: “What are some things that you see in the world that are not right? What is one thing we can do to help?”

DRIVE TIME

While on the go this month, make a game of how many times and places you can let someone in front of you— either in traffic or in line for the bus, in the drive-thru, or in the grocery checkout line.

BED TIME

Pray for each other: “Jesus, help us to love other people the way You love us. Help us to sometimes say ‘no’ to things we want to do or have in order to say ‘yes’ to the things others need.”

THEIR TIME

Encourage your kid(s) to spend time each week this month working through their age-specific GodTime cards. You can choose to do these devotionals with your child(ren) or allow them to work independently. Either way, be sure to take the opportunity to talk with them about what they are learning about God and their faith.

SHARE your highs and lows

What was great about today? What was tough? Reflect on your day and share a high and low with one another.

READ a Bible verse or story

It's time to open God's word. Any story or verse will do. The monthly and weekly POP Kids verses are a great place to start.

TALK about how the Bible reading relates to your highs and lows

How does what you just read relate to where you are today in your highs and lows. What might God be trying to teach you through this particular Scripture on this particular day?

PRAY for everyone's highs and lows

Offer your hearts and minds in prayer. Simply talk to God. Thank God for His goodness, and ask for guidance as needed.

BLESS one another

Trace the sign of the cross on one another's forehead as a reminder that you belong to God and to one another. Make eye and heart contact as you share words of blessing such as “You are a beloved child of God”.
