

PAUL

Paul wasn't always a party starter. At first, he did whatever he could to make sure Christians never felt safe or that they belonged. But after a meeting with God, Paul became known for spreading the Good News about Jesus all over the world.

[Galatians 1:13-15 NLT]

PETER

Peter was one of the first disciples to give up everything he knew to follow Jesus. While he wasn't always perfect, Peter spent the rest of his life working to create a church where everyone who followed Jesus could belong.

[Acts 2:38-41 NLT]

ESTHER

Esther became Queen over a large kingdom during a time when someone close to the King was working hard to kill all of the Jews who lived there. Risking her own life, Esther begged the King to save her people. Because of her bravery, her request was granted and the Jewish people of the kingdom were protected.

[Esther 8:5-6 NIV]

LOIS AND EUNICE

Lois and Eunice may not be well known, but their faith had a big impact on those around them, especially in their own family. Timothy, their son and grandson, helped Paul establish and encourage churches in cities where people decided to follow Jesus with their lives.

[2 Timothy 1:5 NIV]
